Adrien Colombier

I'm a french student living in Fontainebleau, south of Paris. I'm 23 years old.

Profile photo :

School :

I've been learning computer science and game development since 3 years at Epitech Paris where I mainly learn the basics.

Languages :

Preferences for C and C++. I also know some Python for mathematical and fast development. For web development I know React and Angular (JavaScript frameworks)

Background :

I worked on a 3D Engine in a startup named Aerys as a C++ developer. I also do a lot of Game Jam and participate in the 3 last Global Game Jam with friends where we tried different engines each time like Unity, Unreal and Godot.
